

DIGS Booking Pledge

Terms and Conditions

1. Students who have applied to attend a University or a Higher Education Establishment in any of the cities in which DIGS operates with entry in September 2020, will be eligible to be released from the Licence\Tenancy Agreement if, as a result of the Government imposing travel restrictions, they are prevented from travelling within or to the UK to take up their place at their First Choice university.
2. Students who have applied to attend a University or a Higher Education Establishment in any of the cities in which DIGS operates with entry in September 2020, will be eligible to put back the start date of their Licence\Tenancy Agreement to the Saturday before the travel restrictions are lifted if, as a result of the Government lifting travel restrictions, they are able to travel within or to the UK and can take up their place at their First Choice university.

For example, if the start date of your face-to-face course is changed to 11 November 2020 your new tenancy start date will be 7 November 2020, and you will not be liable for any accommodation fees from your original tenancy start date to 6 November 2020 inclusive.

3. Students who have applied to attend a University or a Higher Education Establishment in any of the cities in which DIGS operates with entry in September 2020, will be eligible to be released from the Licence/Tenancy Agreement if their First Choice university course is no longer running for September 2020.
4. Students who have applied to attend a University or a Higher Education Establishment in any of the cities in which DIGS operates with entry in September 2020, will be eligible to put back the start date of their Licence\Tenancy Agreement to the Saturday before their course starts if, your University changes the official start date of your face-to-face course to a later date.

For example, if the start date of your face-to-face course is changed to 11 November 2020 your new tenancy start date will be 7 November 2020, and you will not be liable for any accommodation fees from your original tenancy start date to 6 November 2020 inclusive.

5. If a student falls under any of the above clauses, they will be required to update us on their circumstances and provide official evidence from either their First Choice University or the relevant travel authorities, no later than 6:00pm, seven days prior to your Licence\Tenancy Agreement start date.

Evidence can be emailed to support@digstudent.co.uk or posted to DIGS Booking Pledge, The Hub, Storthes Hall Park, Kirkburton, Huddersfield, HD8 0WA.
