

No Place No Pay

Terms and Conditions

1. Students who have applied to attend a University or a Higher Education Establishment in any of the cities in which DIGS operates, as their First UCAS choice and with entry in September 2023, will be eligible to be released from their Licence\Tenancy Agreement if, as a result of not achieving the required A-Level, Scottish Higher (or equivalent) results, they do not gain a place at their First UCAS choice university.
2. New and returning students are eligible to receive this offer. Subject to rooms being available, students will automatically become eligible for this offer if they are applying for university entry for September 2023.
3. If a student does not gain a place at their First UCAS choice University and wishes to be released from their Tenancy Agreement as a result of not achieving the required grades, they must provide DIGS with proof of a rejection letter or proof that their exam results did not meet the requirements of the course within 7 days of the date the results have been published. This policy is valid until 1st September 2023.
4. If students fail to provide the required proof/information within the above time scale, they will be bound by the terms and conditions and cancellation policy set out in the Licence\Tenancy Agreement.
5. Evidence can be a written letter from the University/UCAS, or a screen shot of the student UCAS status. Evidence can be emailed to support@digstudent.co.uk or posted to Cancellation Requests, The Hub, Storthes Hall Park, Kirkburton, West Yorkshire, HD8 0WA.
6. All students released under the No Place No Pay offer are entitled to a refund of the Deposit (if paid).
7. If you do not qualify for the No Place No Pay Offer you will be bound by the terms and conditions and cancellation policy set out in the Licence\Tenancy Agreement.
8. DIGS Student reserves the right to remove or change this promotional offer at any time.
